

MICHAEL J. LEVANGIE

Michael is a trial lawyer. He founded multiple businesses before becoming a lawyer and believes responsibility, reasonableness, and common sense are the touchstones of any enterprise.

Legal Experience

Mr. LeVangie is a seasoned litigator. Whether the dispute is in state court, federal court, before an administrative agency, or in an alternative dispute resolution forum, it is likely that one was previously encountered and successfully defended by Mr. LeVangie.

When not actively defending a client, Mr. LeVangie works to prevent claims with cutting edge, practical advice. His legal advice is combined with keen business sense and practical human experience. Mr. LeVangie's areas of specialty include employment law, professional liability, motor sport and leisure liability, products liability, corporate governance, and the defense of catastrophic injury claims.

Activities and Interests

Michael maintains a passion for photography, endurance activities, and motor sports. When not in the office he can often be found on the trails or local track preparing for an upcoming event.
