

DEVERA HANDY

Devera Handy is an Administrative Professional at Holden Law Group, where she supports daily operations, scheduling, and team coordination to help keep the firm running efficiently. With over 10 years of experience in office management and executive support, she is known for her organization, attention to detail, and ability to manage multiple priorities in fast-paced environments.

Client Relations Experience

Prior to joining Holden Law Group, Devera built a diverse background across healthcare, legal, and business environments, serving in roles such as Office Manager, Executive Professional, and Legal Professional. Throughout her career, she has supported leadership teams, managed complex calendars, maintained confidential records, and played a key role in ensuring efficient day-to-day operations.

Activities and Interests

Outside of the office, Devera is a dedicated mom of three boys and three girls and is a bodybuilding competitor who values discipline, consistency, and personal growth qualities she brings into both her personal and professional life. She also enjoys spending time volunteering with local charities, being outdoors, especially near the ocean, soaking up warm weather, and has a special love for mini cows.
